Conference Keynotes

Humor, Laughter and Healing

Dr. Funshine (Caroline Meeks, MD)

Experience the stress reducing and joy producing facets of laughter yoga while learning firsthand about the healing benefits of humor and laughter!

Xian Gung for Healers - How to Run Powerful Frequencies of Energy

Kathy Allan, RN, HN-BC, HTCP, HTCI, SEP

This is the best overall set of Qi Gong movements for general Qi cultivation for healers. It fills in the human aura in a very balanced way. These movements will assist experienced healers, as well as those who have never felt the physical manifestations of Qi, to run powerful frequencies of energy. Even if you do other energy practices, this one is recommend for healers by Rosalyn Bruyere.

Crop Circles: Messages for 2012 from the Guides

Ann Cathcart, BA, BSN, RN, HTCP, HNB-BC, LUT

Crop circles are a modern day phenomenon with implications beyond human comprehension. How can healers work with the energy and messages appearing on earth in grain fields...of all places? Many formations reference the Mayan calendar ending in 2012. Explore the enigma, feel the power, and experience the joy. Awareness expands consciousness toward all possibilities, especially toward healing Mother Earth and our selves. There were over one hundred elaborate crop circles worldwide in 2011. What is the message?

Joyful Healing for You & Your Clients - Optimizing Your Brain for Positive Change

Rev. Mary Ann Geoffrey, RN, HTCP/1

A funshop which will help the Healing Touch Practitioner gain greater understanding of the body/mind connection. Practical Neuro-Associative-Conditioning methods are explored to assist the practitioner to not only make positive changes in their lives but work more effectively with clients. Leave this workshop armed with tools and skills you can put to immediate use.

“Letting Go”: Explore, Reflect and Experience the Four Elements for Self-Healing

Sharon Murnane, RN, HN-BC, HTCP

Through self-reflection, we will explore each of the four elements (Earth/Wind/Sun/Sea) as we weave our way energetically and interactively to connect to ourselves and others using imagery and voice. The intention is to allow you to “let go of that which no longer serves you”; experience an energizing and healing journey as nature intended through the gifts of Earth, Wind, Sun and Sea increasing sensory awareness for joyful healing, wholeness, harmony and inner peace.

Post Conference Workshop

The Body Selectric: How the Body Moves from Fight, Flight and Freeze Back to Flow

Kathy Allan RN, HN-BC, HTCP/HTCI, SEP

This workshop offers a lighthearted experiential understanding of how the body/mind automatically selects the right responses when it perceives safety, danger or life-threat. Participants will learn how to interrupt the traumatic stress continuum with ease in order to create safety and restore balance in themselves, their families and their clients. They will be prepared to work more confidently and effectively with people traumatized from a variety of causes and will feel more comfortable when doing the Healing Touch Trauma Release Technique.

To register contact Margaret Spurr at mjspurr@gmail.com or (406) 600-1520 (not part of regular conference registration)
